F. No. WDRA/2018/1-3/Tech-Part (1) / 60

Dated: 15.01.2020

It has come to the notice of Authority that during stock inspection, one of the Inspecting Officers had visited the allotted warehouse for conducting the stock inspection. On his arrival at the allotted warehouse for stock inspection, he observed that the stocks were shifted to some other warehouse of the same WSP without intimation to the Authority and the concerned Repository.

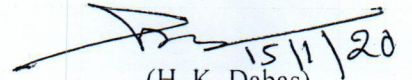

2. This Shifting tantamount to suppression of the factual information from the Authority and the concerned Repository which consequently amounts to violation the relevant rules and guidelines of the Authority.

3. In case, on arrival at the warehouse, for stock inspection, the IO had found that the stocks of the allotted warehouse, has been shifted to another warehouse, he should have informed the Authority immediately through phone or email and should have awaited the instruction of the Authority. This has not been done by the Inspecting Officer which is not desirable by any Inspecting officer conducting the stock and the general inspection.

4. The above, mistake on the part of Inspecting Officer has been viewed seriously by the Authority and is to be avoided because this sort of negligence of the part of IO may expose the Authority to different types of risks.

5. These points are to be noted by all the Inspection Agencies and the concerned IOs may be advised suitably on the issue.

6. The receipt of this circular may please be acknowledged.

(H. K. Dabas),
Under Secretary (Technical).
